

CAPACITY BUILDING FOR STAKEHOLDERS

“Integrating migrants in the Greek labour market: challenges for trainers and cultural mediators”

December 10th, 2019, 9:30 – 13:30

Achaia Chamber of Commerce, 58 Michalakopoulou st., Patras

9:30 – 10:00 Registration

10:00 – 10:10 Welcome

Introduction to the aims of the session

10:10 – 10:40 Migrant integration to the labour market: training needs and prospects

Dr. B. Vassiliadis, HOU

Extracts from the MILE survey

- Main training challenges in Europe and in Greece
- The training needs for migrant employees according to Greek employers
- Best practices that could be transferred in the Greek VET system
- Train the trainers - needs of informal and formal learning models

10:40 – 11:30 Training needs for addressing legal-related issues and conflict resolution

K. Giannopoulos, BSc, MSc Law, Legal Expert

- Why legal issues are interconnected with migrant labour inclusion in Greece
 - Training needs for migrants
 - Training needs for employers
 - Training needs for trainers
- Racism incidents at the workplace and how trainees need to be also legally educated
- Conflict resolution at the workplace: rural vs. urban incident management

11:30 –12:30 Sectorial training needs and prospects for migrant inclusion in the Greek labor market

Aliki Panagiotarou, BSc, MSc Educational Expert

- The Mediterranean labor model of migration: how migrant training affects and is affected by socioeconomic factors
- Update on recent changes in training aspects of cultural mediation for migrant employees
- Methodological, sectorial and demographic considerations in migrant training

12:30-13:00 Conclusions- Discussion

Dr. B. Vassiliadis, HOU

Register through the MILE social collaboration platform @ <https://www.culturalmediators.eu/mile/>

MILE
Migrants Integration in the Labour Market in Europe
(821725-MILE-AMIF-2017-AG-INTE)
www.projectmile.eu